Elk Point set for Canada Day

A full day of fun-filled activities has been planned for Saturday, July 1 in Elk Point, as the entire community prepares to celebrate Canada's 122nd birthday.

Events get underway with a mammoth pancake breakfast sponsored by the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce, a half block north of 50 Ave. on 50 St., with local business persons flipping the flapjacks from 7:00 to 10:00 a.m.. Then it's time for the Bed Races, sponsored by the Royal Canadian Legion, and held just one block over on 51 Street.

The Lioness Parade, with prizes awarded in nine categories, hits the street at 10:30 a.m., making its way east from the arena to 50 Street, then south on that thoroughfare to Railway Avenue, west one block, north to the Elks Hall, then west on 50

Ave. to 54 Street, north to 52 Ave., then east to 52 Street and north to the arena grounds.

Official opening ceremonies go at 12:00 noon on the Canada Day Stage north of the arena, with the arrival of the color party and messages from special visitors including MP Deborah Grey, MLA John Drobot, Town and County officials, and Miss Lakeland, Angel Ference. The afternoon will continue with stage entertainment, with the Bonnyville Skipperroos, Kehewin Teen Reelers, St. Paul vocalist Lisa Grekul and many more talented folk on the program. Old Time Fiddling and Red River Jig contests go at 3:30 p.m., so plan to take part.

For the sports minded, the afternoon will include adult

Commemorative Presentation...

MLA John Drobot presents Fishing Lake Settlement Council Chairman Bruce Desjarlais with an Alberta flag and commemorative scroll marking the fiftieth anniversary of Fishing Lake Metis Settlement.

Fishing Lake

Celebrating 50 years

Numerous former residents of Fishing Lake Metis Settlement came home this weekend to join in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the formation of the settlement.

A pancake breakfast, a colorful parade, a horseshoe tournament and ballgames were enjoyed on Saturday before the clouds closed in and sent everyone scurrying for shelter from a heavy afternoon shower. Sun once again broke through as residents and guests gathered at J. F. Dion School for the celebration banquet.

Settlement Council Chairman Bruce Desjarlais welcomed the guests and commented on the June 20 Metis Referendum, which has given Alberta's 7 Metis settlements the right to make their own plans for the future, and which will require residents to 'work together to decide how things will be done.'

Master of Ceremonies Brian Fayant introduced the elders, including both long time residents and those who were part of the settlement in earlier years, along with MLA John Drobot and special guests from Social Services and the Metis Settlement Branch. Out of town visitors from Alexander, Chetwynd, B. C., Clairmont, Tulliby Lake, Meadow Lake, London, England, Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan, Elk Point and St. Paul were introduced.

Drobot brought greetings from the Provincial Government, and presented Desjarlais with an Alberta flag and commemorative scroll and plaque. The MLA also touched on the referendum, which he said would give the Metis 'an opportunity to plan their own destiny.'

Letters from Member of Parliament Deborah Grey, Lieutenant Governor Helen Hunley and Premier Don Getty added their good wishes and congratulations on the anniversary.

The elders present were then invited to tell about the early days of the settlement. One of Fishing Lake's first school teachers, Mabel Dumont, remembered teaching 50 children to a class in the old log school, and said she 'enjoyed every year I spent here.'

Victoria Fayant told of coming with many other Metis families from Saskatchewan to start the colony at Fishing Lake.

Former settlement clerk Christina Desjarlais was born at Frog Lake, where her father was the first teacher on the Reserve. Following his death, the family lived at Clearwater Lake. Mrs. Desjarlais raised a family of 12, of which the Council Chairman is the oldest son.

Homecoming Committee organizer Diane Parenteau offered her thanks to all who helped with the event, which took well over a year of planning.

Saturday's program continued with a dance, which featured entertainment by a group of young local square dancers.

Sunday started off with a second pancake breakfast, followed by a special Mass celebrated by Father Louis-Philip Roy, who served the settlement from 1960 to 1973.

Lions to dunk Mayor

Elk Point Lions Club will have their dunk tank set up for the Canada Day celebrations. Mayor Bruce Kleeberger has volunteered to sit on the hot seat and challenges anyone to try to dunk him. Other celebrities and 'friends' will also take their place on the tank during the day so come on out and see how good your aim is. All proceeds will go toward the new ball diamonds.

Visual Smorgasbord...

Artist Billie Milholland (left) shows Library Board Chairperson Adele Mandryk her collection of multi-media art which is on display at Elk Point Public Library all this week.

Many feast eyes on art smorgasbord

Close to a hundred art lovers packed Elk Point Public Library's Program Room Thursday evening, to feast their eyes on the 'Visual Smorgasbord' displayed by local artist Billie Milholland.

Thirty nine works were on display, including portraits, florals, birds and antique vehicles, machinery and buildings.

Portraits of both individuals and groups are minutely detailed and expressive of each subject's personality. Most of those on display are from private collections, and have been created by Ms Milholland from photographs she has taken of the subjects.

Florals include delicate watercolors and vivid acrylics, most being a single, pair or trio of blooms, rather than the traditional bouquet favored by many still-life painters. An extremely lifelike watercolor of berry-laden raspberry canes, and a trio of watercolors of individuals at work in the garden continue the pastoral theme.

Ms Milholland's love of nature is clear in her portrayal of wildlife, including geese, a mallard duck, a stately heron, an inscrutable turtle.

Vintage vehicles, machinery and buildings also are part of the show. Several of the paintings of vehicles were displayed last weekend at the Elk Point Auto Club Car Show, and the artist hopes to work toward an entire show of automotive subjects, to be displayed in conjunction with the club's next car show.

Rural life of earlier days is shown in a glowing portrait of a decrepit tractor, surrounded by fall's golden grain, an early combine abandoned in a field of wildflowers, a row of well-used wagon wheels, a crumbling log barn, and a bench awaiting a weary farmer by an old back door.

'A Visual Smorgasbord' remains on display all this week, during regular library hours, and is well worth a visit.

games of horseshoes, a rolling pin toss, nail pounding competition and the ever-popular Tug-of-War, sponsored by the Elk Point Oilmen's Association. For the youngsters, the Oilettes have special activities planned which include a visit from face-painting and balloon-animal-making clowns, and a mini-carnival with games of skill at a nominal fee.

The afternoon winds up with a barbecue supper in the arena, served up by the Windsor Midgets Hockey Team at a reasonable sum, and evening activities include a beerfest and dance, getting underway at 7:00 p.m.

Plan to come to Elk Point and join in the fun!

4-H Multi Club

Year winds up

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club wound up their 1988-89 year with a supper and program for members, leaders, parents, award sponsors and steer purchasers held Friday evening at the United Church Camp, Whitney Lake.

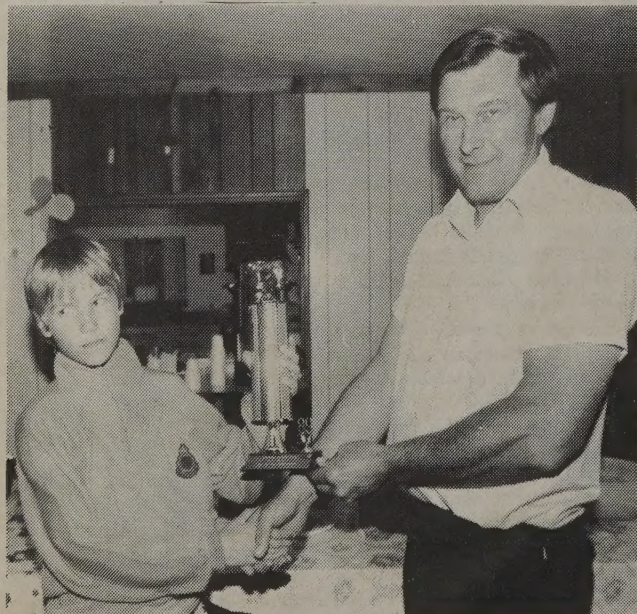

Overall Club Leader Joanne Bepko thanked all those whose efforts had gone toward a very successful year. Heifer Project Leader Jim Orr added thanks to the entire community for their support, noting 'we should be proud we have so many behind us.'

Margaret and Lawrence Modin were thanked for their years of work in correcting record books, and were presented with a certificate and pin. Trophy donors who were missed at Achievement Day received similar recognition.

One trophy remained to be presented, this went to David Naber, whose calf had the club's best Rate of Gain. The trophy was sponsored by CBM Confectionery.

Rate Of Gain Winner...

Chamber explores Community Futures

Jean Champagne of St. Paul - Smoky Lake Community Futures visited the June 21 meeting of the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce, to introduce the program and outline its objectives.

A community based and community directed socioeconomic development program, Community Futures is part of Employment and Immigration Canada's Canadian Jobs Strategy, and is designed to provide support for local response to technological change and economic development, by encouraging development and creating lasting employment.

Champagne said the program is 'grass roots at work,' and is better adapted to filling the needs of smaller communities than were previous programs.

The St. Paul - Smoky Lake Community Futures is one of 20 such groups in Alberta, and consists of a committee of 11 volunteers from communities and rural areas in the counties of St. Paul and Smoky Lake and from Goodfish Lake Indian Reserve. Their role is to work with local authorities to analyze the problems in their areas and to identify the potential for creating lasting economic development.

The first step for Community Futures is the formulation of a five-year economic development plan for economic and employment stabilization and growth, evaluating the strengths and weaknesses and identifying remedies for the problems. Participation of local authorities, groups and individuals is required to obtain the needed input for an effective plan. 'What we can do depends on the communities themselves,' Champagne said. 'The more a community puts in, the more they will get out.'

Community Futures hopes to have a draft of the plan by September 1, with completion and approval by the end of October, so implementation can begin by the end of 1989.

Miss Lakeland, Angel Ference, also visited Chamber. She expressed personal thanks to the Chamber for her sponsorship in the pageant and to the individual businesses for their response in donating toward prizes for the contestants.

Larry Demchuk reported a good response to a request for help at the Canada Day Pancake Breakfast, and added that anyone else wishing to become involved in the event will be more than welcome. Plans for the breakfast are nearing completion, with only final details left to be attended to.

Demchuk also told Chamber that the Elk Point Auto Club Car Show had been a 'reasonable success,' with 39 entries and 225 paid admissions.

The much-delayed postcard project was discussed, and approval was given to order 1000 cards from a suitable photograph or photographs. A color mock-up of the Elk Point tourist brochure was displayed to members.

The Class of '64 Reunion on the Canada Day weekend was also discussed, and financial support given toward the purchase of commemorative items for those attending the reunion.

Chamber was then dismissed for the summer break, with meetings to resume September 6.

Do-Si-Do...

Eight young square dancers charmed the audience at Fishing Lake's Homecoming with their well-rehearsed routines.

Looking Back...

Former and present residents of Fishing Lake Settlement enjoyed 'remembering when..' with the collection of pictures displayed at the 50th Anniversary celebrations.

Thoughts on another ending

By Jackie Gulayec

Grade 12 Student, F.G. Miller

The time has come, they say, to spread those wings and fly. Leave that nest and go out on your own. I've waited all my life, it seems for this day to come. Now I'm not so sure if I like the idea of being on my own.

I sit and think of the past and of all the people who helped make my life this far so rewarding. The people in Elk Point have made my world a safe and secure place to live. There are groups such as the Elks the RCMP, and individuals such as Dr. K.C. Miller and Mrs. Kuziw who contributed a great deal towards my achievements. These are people I can never thank enough for all they have done.

I think of Mrs. Melin and her wise words, "Yes Jackie, it would be a good idea if you learned to read". Not knowing then what an important part in my life Mr. Mugs would play.

I think of Mrs. Mable Dumont who encouraged me to take up public speaking. I am forever grateful to Mrs. Dumont for taking the time to coach me. I have used the skills she has taught me with confidence many times.

There's Mr. Rob Boyd, who gave me my first real taste of competitive sports. With his friendship and guidance I learned to work hard and be patient. He was my first volleyball coach and because of him volleyball is still my most loved sport.

I think of Mr. Orest Sereda, who tried to convince me that if I worked hard enough I would be able to speak Ukrainian. Sorry Mr. Sereda, nothing worked.

Mr. Meger told me that no dream was too big. He was right.

Mr. Tredger who encouraged me to set my goals high. And Mr. McCowan with his good nature and patience helped see me through Biology 30.

I think of Mr. Hellquist's gentle caring ways. He always told me that no question was a stupid question. No matter how hard the problem he always made me feel I could master it.

I thank Mr. Martin for helping me win my first provincial gold medal. Mr. O'Neill for the special gift on my 18th birthday and for all the little extras, like being so kind to Kaoru when she was here and the pins and license plates. Mr. Boratynec for giving up his lunch time to help me with a math problem. Mr. Krankowsky for keeping the conversation at our dinner table lively.

I think of Ray Danyluk and of how he taught me that it was possible to love two sports. Coach Danyluk is what makes the game basketball so enjoyable. Without him there the game is not the same. He is a very unique person and it was an honor to be coached by him.

My thoughts are of Mr. Forrest and our very special friendship. He gave so much to me. I've grown to cherish and respect our friendship more and more each day. When life is at it's darkest he seems to know. There's always the little message on my memo or the card in the mail. He never forgets and he always has time.

There's my little friends Ryan Hahn, Jena and Jordan Bassett, Deny, Timmy and Sheri Hudy. I always know I'll have someone to play catch with, to play a game of ground hockey with or just talk.

I thank all my teachers, coaches and friends for the time they invested in me. You've helped me grow and have broadened my horizon.

Last but not least, my family. There's my Auntie Dianne (my second mom). She recognized my accomplishment and did her part to see me rewarded. She let me be my own person and loved me in spite of my mistakes. There's my Uncle Rock who always makes me feel so pretty.

I think of my Grampa and Gramma and all the time I have spent with them. It's funny with grandparents, you know, no matter what I do it's neither childish nor unforgivable. They are always there when I need them and they don't expect anything from me. I think of my Baba and Gido who share with me my trials and errors yet never judging.

Most of all I thank my parents and my sister. For 18 years my parents have put their lives on hold. No matter where it may be - Fort McMurray, Grande Prairie, Edmonton, Calgary or St. Paul - they were always ready to go. They supported me in every adventure I attempted, they never complained about a lack of time or money. Mom calls me an investment. I can count on one hand the number of games, competitions or activities my mom has missed. She was my coach, my mom and my best friend. I thank my sister Carmen, for being patient with me and cleaning up my room when I was just too tired to move.

Yes, the time has come and I know these few words will never repay the debt I owe, but I just wanted everyone to know that I haven't forgotten and that I appreciated everything you have done for me!

THANK YOU EVERYONE!!!

Beloved Aunt Jennie...

Jennie Hobden, with a great, great grand-nephew, and photos of her mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, 1985.

To the one who walked Alberta Trails

About Aunt Jennie

By Irene Magnusson

Jennie Mable Hobden was born in Carleton Place, near Ottawa, on January 17, 1907, the youngest of eight children, to Katherine and John Hobden. At the age of five years, she made the long move, by train, with her mother and older brothers and sisters, to join her father, who had preceded them into the almost-wilderness of the area northwest of Elk Point. Their first home here was a rough-hewn, sod-roofed log house, surrounded by forest, near a small lake, which still bears the Hobden name.

When Jennie was ten, her mother died. Later, her father remarried. Jennie spent a year or two with a married sister in Edmonton, where she acquired grade two in school, there being no school yet for her within walking distance of her father's homestead. This, however, didn't stop her from learning.

She became a best-possible baby-sitter for the growing families of her siblings, as she was shuttled from home to home, as needed, when new babies came or someone was ill. She not only cared for them, she loved them.

Made partly deaf by an early childhood illness, she was perhaps over-sheltered by the family. In later years she wore a hearing aid.

She went to visit the eldest brother in Victoria, where she obtained housework, first in a Seniors' Home, later in a large Boys' School, where she became head cook. Many years later, after a long illness, she returned to Elk Point, making her home with her eldest sister, now widowed. Recovering her health, she spent her time tending children and doing day-work in the area until reaching retirement age.

Jennie never married, she had no children, yet she could boast a very large family. Besides four brothers and three sisters, she "mothered" twenty-three nieces and nephews, plus countless great and great-great nieces and nephews, many of whom she cared for personally and loved as her own.

In her loving, careful way, Jennie went about her life, doing her share and more. She loved the little house, bought with her saving, next door to her sister's home, yet never lived in - (she was too busy caring for others). From her Father she inherited a love of gardening, and always kept the large lots between her house and her sister's neat and bright with flowers.

She loved needlework, and painting with water-colors, always passing the results of her efforts on as gifts. She was also a careful and artistic amateur photographer.

Jennie kept up correspondence with many family members and friends in Canada, as well as life-long links with family members in England, whom she never had the opportunity to visit, but felt she knew them as well as her many Canadian relatives and friends.

Rich in her faith, Jennie attended church whenever opportunity allowed, happily in the new Baptist Church in Elk Point these last few years, living her life well and in the love of God, with others or alone.

Left alone by the passing of the sister she had share a home with and lovingly care for, for so many years, she moved to the Heritage Lodge shortly after her 80th birthday. Jennie thoroughly enjoyed her time there, two and a half years, among friends, doing her small crafts, reading, the visits from family and friends and keeping in touch with the lives of many by means of letters.

Jennie was eternally young-in-heart, and was never afraid to show if she was pleased. She enjoyed kids. I remember one event: our eldest daughter was very ill. Aunt Jennie offered to mind the other kids for us at our home. We were away much later than planned and I was afraid the kids would be cranky. But when we finally got home, there was Jennie and my four. They had formed a band, using the heavy pot lids and spoons, having a whale of a time - she the instigator, having as much fun as the kids. There are many such memories in my heart of my dear and loving Aunt Jennie.

Jennie's passing will leave a vacancy in the lives of many, family and friends alike, as they will miss her smiling face, her quiet caring ways, her love.

Jennie - like the 'old lamp lighter' - made the world a little brighter.

Today, after nearly two weeks of struggle, pain and stress, our dear Aunt Jennie has been laid to rest, having passed away in the University Hospital in Edmonton on June 16, 1989. A few of us were able to be with her in her last days, many more were with her in thoughts and prayers. I had the pleasure and privilege to live

Jeff had just turned 16 last week and had taken his driving test. He was so happy he got his licence on the first try that he decided to celebrate. Jeff went home and begged and pleaded with his parents to borrow the family car.

After a few hours of this begging and pleading, Jeff's parents reluctantly gave in. Jeff could have the car as long as he drove the speed limit, did not drink, and was home by midnight.

Jeff was dressed and ready to leave at seven. His parents reminded him to have a good time.

Jeff stopped to pick up his girlfriend Susan, and his best friend Rob and his girlfriend, Kim.

Jeff and his friends went into town to drive around and show off to his other friends the fact that he had gotten his licence.

The four friends soon became hungry, so they went to the local hangout for burgers and shakes. There they ran into some of their other friends and Bill asked if they were going to the party at Mary's house.

Kim and Susan really wanted to go, but Jeff decided they had better not. The girls begged if they could go for only a couple of hours.

When they arrived, the party was in full swing. They no sooner walked in the door when someone handed them a beer.

Everyone was having such a good time that the hours went by in a flash. Jeff soon realized that it was already past midnight. He went to round up the others to leave.

Soon they were on their way home. Jeff was driving fast so he would not get into too much trouble from his parents for being late.

Rob turned the stereo way up and they were having a good time laughing and joking around. They did not see the lights or hear the whistle of the train.

The car was half way across the tracks when the train smashed into the side of the car, turning the car and the kids into a pile of twisted metal and flesh.

These four young people were killed because they did not follow the rules. Jeff was told not to drink and drive, and not to speed. He would still be alive today if he had listened to his parents, and his parents would still have a son. If there were any people sober they should be the ones to drive, not the one who is drunk. If they would have followed that rule their parents would still have sons and daughters.

A Touch Of The Orient...

Takahashi is here on an exchange program during which she is improving her knowledge of English, and is staying with the Kozak family in Dewberry. Kristy's costume is worn for the sport of Kendo, which is similar to fencing.

Notice of Public Hearing

Alberta Power applies for rate change

Alberta Power Limited (APL) has applied to the Public Utilities Board (the Board) by way of a General Rate Application for approval to change existing rates, charges or schedules for electric light, power or energy furnished by APL to its customers in Alberta for the years 1989 and 1990. The Board will hold a Pre-Hearing Conference with respect to these proceedings on June 23, 1989 at the Board's offices, 11th Floor, 10055 - 106 Street, Edmonton, Alberta commencing at 9:30 a.m. The purpose of the Pre-Hearing Conference is to establish procedures and dates for the continuation of the general rate application, to identify issues and to deal with such other matters as may be appropriate.

Total Increases Requested

APL requests approval of rates that would generate 1989 forecast revenues of $435,516,000 and 1990 forecast revenues of $481,647,000. APL's rate application indicates that they will experience a revenue shortfall of $3,095,000 in 1989 and $27,972,000 in 1990 at existing rate levels. Increased costs are primarily caused by the construction of transmission and distribution facilities, the commissioning of Sheerness Unit 2 on October 1, 1990 and an increase in the requested rate of return on equity. Increased costs have been partially offset by projected higher sales and a change in APL's accounting policy on unbilled revenues.

Interim Increases Requested

APL is requesting interim retail rates effective January 1, 1990 to generate the proposed 1990 Revenue Requirement of $481,647,000 and a temporary surcharge effective from January 1, 1990 to December 31, 1990 to collect the revenue shortfall of $3,095,000 in 1989. According to the Board's tentative time table the January 1, 1990 date will follow the Board's determination of total revenue requirement for 1989 and 1990.

After consideration of all filed material, and the evidence presented during the proceedings the Board may accept, reject or vary the revenue requirements and revenues presented by APL.

The second phase of the proceedings to fix schedules of rates, tolls and charges to be imposed and observed by APL will commence after the determination by the Board of total Revenue Requirement and revenues for the above years. APL is expected to file phase two information at a later date.

Issues Identified by the Board

As a means of making the hearing process more efficient and effective, Board staff will carry out a preliminary review and analysis of the filed material for the purpose of identifying significant issues which may be addressed during the proceedings. The issues identified by the Board will be available on June 16, 1989.

To See the Rate

Application Information

Complete copies of the Rate Application Information are available for inspection at the Board's offices in either Edmonton or Calgary. You may also arrange to examine or to obtain the filed information by contacting APL at the address indicated below.

To Intervene in the Hearing

If you wish to be registered as an Intervenor in these proceedings you must comply with the following procedure. Your intervention must set out your name, your address, and the way in which these proceedings affect you. Your intervention can be delivered or mailed to both the Board and to APL at the addresses listed below prior to your appearance at the Hearings. Alternately, you may register your intervention at the time of the Hearings. All persons who are registered as Intervenor will be entitled to receive from APL copies of all evidence filed during the rate application proceedings.

All persons who are registered as Intervenor will receive notice of the time and place of the continuation of these proceedings.

If you do not file an intervention, the Board may proceed in your absence and you will not be entitled to further notice of these proceedings.

To Comment Informally Without Participating in the Hearing

If you wish, you may comment on the rate review information without becoming a formal Intervenor. Comments may be made in writing to the Board, clearly stating your views and any relevant information. Comments so received can only be used as evidence if the writer is prepared to present the letter at the Hearings and be available for cross-examination.

If you require further information regarding the hearing process contact the Public Utilities Board or APL offices as listed below.

THEN
Baby Linda

NOW
Old Lady Hammond

How about these great pictures Linda Dear?

You've heard the expression "Old but not dead"? Well in Linda's case we have to take her pulse now and then to be sure!!!

AH!!! The joys of old age!!! Support hose, geritol, teeth like the stars (they come out at night), drooling cups, hearing aids, more chins than Chinatown.

Anyone who knows this old girl, give her a call to express your sympathy!! Be patient though, she may "wander" in and out of reality, after all she is "30".

With all our love and sympathy,

Sunshine and showers at Stoney Lake

The weather man served up a mixture of sunshine and showers for Stoney Lake Stampede Association's 27th Annual Stampede, with good crowds turning out both days to see Lakeland Rodeo Association's competitors test their skills against Block Brothers' rodeo stock.

Both days opened with a colorful grand entry performed by the Stoney Lake Riders, carrying the flags of Canada, its provinces and territories, and posting the colors western-style.

In the rough stock events, Ron Solomon of Tomahawk took top Bareback honors with a score of 72 in Saturday's go-round, to win the St. Paul Case-IH trophy. Orvin Abbot of St. Albert wowed Sunday's crowd with his 71 point ride aboard Handsome John in the Saddle Bronc event, winning the Zarowny Motors trophy. Tim McKinney of Sherwood Park scored 77 points in Saturday's Bull Riding, which could not be bettered by Sunday's competitors, for the Wowk's Esso trophy.

The timed events saw Steve Friend of Viking wrestle an uncooperative steer into submission in 5.7 seconds to win the Paulchuk Farm Equipment trophy, while D & S Catering's trophy went to calf roper Daryn Knapp of Mayerthorpe for a 11.2 second run. Cindy Mann of Lloydminster edged out Debbie Willier of St. Paul by three hundredths of a second in the Ladies' Barrels for the Elk Point Insurance and Realty trophy.

Nadine King of Wainwright recorded a slightly larger margin in the Junior Barrels, to win out over Jody Bougerolle of Seba Beach for the Vogel's UFA trophy.

Dallas Burns of Elnora led the small contingent of Junior Steer Riders with 65 points, for the Fountain Tire trophy.

A number of best-dressed little cowgirls and cowboys competed for trophies donated by Dale Real Estate, Beaver Lumber, Wozniak Texaco and Lloydminster Heavy Crude during the rodeo intermissions, with Jaylene and James Purdy taking Sunday's honors. Senecal Tire and Gregg's Family Shopping Centre donated Mutton Busting trophies, with Sunday's winner being Bradley Langdone.

Ashley Langdone, Brent Farrell and Jeffrey Belland were Sunday's winners in the Calf Scramble. Calf Scramble trophies were donated by St. Paul Sales and Service and by Wolanuk's Fashions and Foods.

The wild-west excitement of the Stoneboat Race saw the E-Can team and Kevin Drobot team vie for the trophy sponsored by Coyote Creek Ranch and Drobot Auction Service. Sunday action also featured the Wild Ride, with competitors donning crazy costumes involving everything from bikini tops to live chickens before lowering themselves aboard their broncs. Kelly Giesbrecht (with chicken) took the top marks for the Westmin Resources trophy and cash prize contributed by a number of donors.

Other sponsors included Paul Caouette and Sons, John Oryshchuk Trucking, Toronto Dominion Bank, Phil's Hardware and Variety, and Letourneau Farm Supplies. Elk Point Packers, St. Paul Meat Processors, Speedee Mart and Stoney Lake Stampede Association hosted Sunday morning's pancake breakfast, while Rose's Catering fed a flock of hungry rodeo fans later in the day.

Red Cross

By Irene Magnusson

The final meeting for the summer, of the Elk Point Red Cross branch, was a short one. Eight members gathered at Chairman Violet McFadyen's home, at 2 p.m., Monday June 5th. Secretary Margaret Modin was absent, McFadyen reading the reports.

Violet Smith has donated two quilt tops, one of these has been completed; four quilts are now ready, on hand for sale. Materials for several more are ready, patches need to be cut, sewed and then the tying. A fancy quilt, with a Dresden Plate motif, is in the planning stage, this will be quilted at Modin's home and must be finished by August, to be entered.

McFadyen suggested members make a number of smaller items, for the Christmas sales especially, rather than afghans and other large items, as these sell more readily. Baby outfits and novelty items always sell well.

Members were urged, once again, to keep track of all hours spent doing Volunteer work for Red Cross, as this has a very useful purpose. The recent Zone meeting was reviewed, and again it was reiterated that the amount of Red Cross donated funds used for Administration was a tiny 8 percent, the remainder goes to the charitable purposes Red Cross carries out around the world, and in Canada.

Members were reminded of the Seniors' Information Day, June 9, where Red Cross will display a table showing some of their recent activities in the district. Lindbergh Branch was praised for the amount of work they have done, making a fine contribution to Red Cross for such a few members. Magnusson and McFadyen will attend the Red Cross Convention, in Calgary, June 17/18. The meeting adjourned, with some members then spending a time tying the quilt McFadyen had set up in her basement. The next meeting will be in the fall.

What's news at the library?

Billie Milholland's Art Show being held in the library was received with great enthusiasm. A very large crowd gathered for the grand opening last Thursday evening. The Art show will remain on display in the library during regular library hours until July 3.

The library's "Travelling Tales" made its final visit to the Treasury Branch last Friday. This new innovative program was very popular and continue it again some time in the future. Thank you to those parents and children who joined us for our weekly visits. Also a special thank you to Bill Tremblay and staff of the Treasury Branch for making our last visit possible.

Last Wednesday, the children of the Elk Point Elementary School were amazed by a very strange and unusual visitor. Our archaeologist would like to report that the sneaky dinosaur is still at large. Thanks to the Elementary School Staff for their cooperation. Thanks Tracy for your help.

The Summer Reading Program will be starting on July 4 with the Elementary Program running Tuesday mornings at 10:00 a.m. and the Preschool Program on Friday mornings at 10:00 a.m. Both programs are about 1 to 1½ hours in length and there is no charge. The children who are registered with the Fun in the Sun Program will also be taking part in the Library Program. On Thursday afternoons at 2:00 p.m., there will also be a matinee. Those parents and children who are vacationing this summer can still attend our Summer Reading Program on a casual basis.

In Memoriam

BODNAR, Harry
In loving memory of HARRY BODNAR, who passed away July 1, 1985.

Four years have passed, Dear Dad, Since you were called away. How well do we remember, That sad and weary day. You suffered much, you murmured not, We watched you day by day. We cried and prayed that your dear life, Would not be taken away.

Sadly missed and forever remembered by: THE BODNAR FAMILY.
